Sir,

Responsive to a Notice under 37 CFR §1.105, mailed July 17, 2007, requiring the assignee and applicant to provide copies of each publication of which the applicant has “authored or co-authored and which describe the disclosed subject matter of cache/buffer systems” and, specifically, the additional entire paper of titled ‘Performance Aspects of High-Bandwidth Multi-Lateral Cache Organizations’,” all such material is provided herewith, listed on the accompanying PTO/SB/08a, filed herewith.

Further, the Notice requires the applicant “to provide other articles and papers published concerning cache structures.” Since the “other articles and papers published concerning cache structures” appears to be so broad as to encompass voluminous material that is unrelated to the present invention, the applicant has construed this requirement to be for “other articles and papers published concerning cache structures” of which the applicant is aware “as may be reasonably necessary to properly examine or treat the matter” as recited in 37 CFR §1.105(a)(1). Other than what has already been provided, Applicant is aware of no additional such material. Accordingly, applicant and assignee are believed to have complied with the spirit of the Notice and the requirements of 37 CFR §1.105.

Since this is being submitted in response to the Notice, no certification or fee is required or believed required, and the duty of candor and good faith requirements of 37 C.F.R. §§1.56, 1.97 and 1.98 are deemed to be fully met as to all documents submitted. Consideration of the submitted documents is respectfully requested.

Respectfully Submitted,
